Join Us on April 6th, with local author Geoffrey Clough. Geoffrey Clough is the author of Fairhaven, a story of a sturdy little ship making his way across the sea of life. He is pursued by enemies, tossed about by severe storms, and intrigued by unusual creatures who become his staunch friends.

Join Us on April 10th, with local author Jeanne Crane. Jeanne Crane has authored two novels about Ireland. The Mary Black song by this name inspires this tribute to Western Ireland: its beauty, its inspiration and its storied history. Using personal slides, poetry and anecdotes from my travels. She invites you to travel with her up the coast from Cork to Donegal, through Gaeltacht (old Irish) areas, and some of Ireland's most iconic sights and sites. Sponsored by the Friends of the Livonia Public Library
